

Daisy's Home

Bo Peep is doing very well! I took her to the vet on Tuesday for a check up and she received a good health report! :) I received a free dose of revolution from the vet and I think I will stick with that brand. She weighs 2.5 pounds. Also she will be going to Port City Animal Hospital on Wednesday 1/20 to have her stitches removed.

Bo Peep is a cute name, but I decided to change it to Daisy!!! :) She has so many toys, a fleece bed and fleece blanket and will be getting a scratching post/kitty condo on Saturday. She's a doll! Thanks again for your help! :) I will send more pictures later. Thanks, Kris [1/15/2010]

Here are some updated picutes of Daisy. Please could you post them when you have a chance! Thank you! Kris Porter [8/5/2010]
