

Firefox and Clyde

Firefox and Clyde

Hey!

We adopted 2 kittens, Firefox and Clyde, in October and they are doing wonderful! Firefox, however, is now named Dorito.

Clyde is becoming a very curious kitten and spends most of his time looking for something to get into or playing by himself. Dorito is super affectionate and loves to nap. Both are very playful and can spend hours chasing a ball or playing on their scratching post. Dorito will even chase his own tail sometimes. Clyde is still small, and is cute and petite. Dorito is getting quite large and loves to eat.

Thanks so much for the wonderful additions to our family! They are healthy and happy little kitties and are loved very much.

Enjoy the 2 pictures of Dorito and the 1 of Clyde. It seems that Dorito is a ham for the camera and Clyde wants nothing to do with it!

Have a great new year.

Rebecca Truluck

